Health & Safety Policy Statement

The Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 imposes a statutory duty on employers to ensure in so far as is reasonably practicable the health and safety of their employees whilst at work. This duty also extends to others who may be affected by that work including Contractors, Agency workers, visitors and members of the public.

Employees also have a statutory duty to take care of themselves and others who may be affected by their acts or omissions.

To enable these duties to be carried out, it is our intent to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety matters are effectively assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels within our organisational structure.

1. We will, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that:

- Adequate resources are provided to ensure that proper provision can be made for health and safety
- Risk assessments are carried out and periodically reviewed
- Systems of work are provided and maintained that are safe and without risks to health
- Arrangements for use, handling, storage, and transport of articles and substances for use at work, are safe and without risks to health
- All employees are provided with such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their safety and health at work and the safety of others who may be affected by their actions
- Where appropriate, health surveillance will be provided for employees
- The provision and maintenance of all plant, machinery and equipment is safe and without risk to health
- The working environment of all employees is safe and without risks to health, and that adequate provision is made with regard to the facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work
- The place of work is safe and there is safe access to and egress from the workplace
- Monitoring activities are undertaken to maintain agreed standards
- We will provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injury and ill health across all our business operations and comply with all applicable health and safety legislation and other relevant requirements.
- All accidents, incidents and near misses will be investigated where appropriate and corrective actions implemented.
- We are committed to continually improving our health and safety performance and management systems

2. It is the duty of all employees at work:

- To take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work, and co-operate with us in fulfilling our statutory duties
- Not to interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interest of health and safety
- Report any health and safety concerns via the Intranet or to the Health & Safety Manager if urgent

3. General:

- This Health and Safety Policy Statement will be reviewed at least annually, amended and updated as and when necessary. Communication of any such changes will be made to all employees
- We will consult and communicate with employees and their representatives on matters affecting their health, safety and welfare
- Detailed reference information for employees can be found in the Health & Safety Policy

As Managing Director, I accept responsibility for this Health and Safety Policy and all Company Directors are responsible for supporting and promoting our commitments and ensuring the effective implementation in their respective areas of the Business.
