FUEL CONSUMPTION & CO2

The test used to establish fuel consumption and CO2 figures has changed to deliver results that are more representative of real life driving. The Worldwide Harmonised Light Vehicle Test Procedure (WLTP) has replaced the old NEDC test. The Fuel Consumption figures shown are derived from the new WLTP test. However, until 6th April 2020, the published CO2 figures will be the NEDC equivalent and this will be used to calculate Vehicle Excise Duty.

The table below shows the fuel consumption (WLTP) figures for each available engine on the Ford Galaxy. These figures may not reflect real life driving results, which will depend upon a number of factors including the accessories fitted, variations in weather, driving styles and vehicle load.

The figures shown are for comparability purposes; only compare fuel consumption and CO2 figures with other vehicles tested to the same technical procedures.

Engine	Fuel Type	Available On	Euro Emissions	Transmission	Drive	Maximum Power PS (KW)	Torque Nm	Combined Fuel Consumption (WLTP Figures excluding options)				Co2 Emissions (WLTP)

Notes

⁰⁰Ford test figures.

⁰⁰ The declared Fuel/Energy Consumptions, CO2-Emissions and Electric range are determined according to the technical requirements and specifications of the European Regulations (EC) 715/2007 and (EU) 2017/1151 as last amended. Light Duty Vehicles type-approved using the World Harmonised Light Vehicle Test Procedure (WLTP) have Fuel/Energy Consumptions and CO2-Emission information for both New European Drive Cycle (NEDC) and WLTP. WLTP is a new, more realistic test procedure for measuring fuel consumption and CO2 emissions and will fully replace the NEDC latest by end of the year 2020. The applied standard test procedure enables comparison between different vehicle types and different manufacturers. In addition to the fuel efficiency of a car, driving behaviour as well as other non-technical factors play a role in determining a car's fuel/energy consumption, CO2 emissions and electric range. CO2 is the main greenhouse gas responsible for global warming. A guide on fuel economy and CO2 emissions which contain data for all new passenger car models is available at any point of sale free of charge or can be downloaded under <http://carfueldata.dft.gov.uk>.

The Vehicle Excise Duty (VED) charged on new cars is based on their engine's CO₂ emissions* (expressed in grams per kilometre (g/km)). All CO₂ emissions figures in g/km are derived from the Worldwide Harmonised Light Vehicle Test Procedure (WLTP). These figures may not reflect real life driving results, which will depend upon a number of factors including the accessories fitted, variations in weather, driving styles and vehicle load.'

You can also use Ford's online configurator to build and customise a new Ford vehicle: www.ford.co.uk/configurator. The configurator provides information about your configured vehicle's fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions (these are also WLTP test figures).

The chart above shows the Bands and the VED which will be levied (for vehicles registered from 1st April 2021 onwards).

If a car's list price is over £40,000 (including VAT and factory fitted options) at first registration, the customer will pay an additional VED charge (currently £335) for five years after the end of the first registration (in addition to the standard VED charge per year, currently £155 for petrol and diesel vehicles and £145 for vehicles classed as alternative fuel vehicles such as a FHEV, PHEV and BEV).
